

CAMPBELL & PARTNERS
EUROPEAN RECRUITMENT CONSULTANTS

Ref: JS/1295

PROCUREMENT MANAGER

Client:

As one of the world's leading names in consumer goods, our client is consistently recognized for the quality of their brands and is currently undergoing a period of significant and exciting change and growth. As a result, we are now looking for an astute professional to make a major contribution to the future growth of the German operations.

Location: Munich

Responsibilities:

- ° definition and development of the purchasing strategy in liaison with operations management
- ° monitoring of new and existing suppliers and evaluation of potential innovations
- ° negotiation of frame agreements with preferred partners
- ° supplier relationship management
- ° re/ordering of goods: POS materials, technical and event equipment, office supplies, car and travel management, services etc
- ° control of all relevant logistics data
- ° master data management re suppliers and materials
- ° rolling forecasts in liaison with sales and marketing
- ° further development of the purchase order system
- ° ensuring an integrated information flow across the supply chain
- ° KPI reporting
- ° you report to the Operations Manager

Requirements:

- ° university graduate ideally with a procurement focus
- ° at least 5 years' procurement experience within the fast moving consumer goods sector
- ° excellent German and English
- ° experienced in MS-Office - SAP R/3 (BW) an advantage
- ° team-player with strong commercial acumen and first-class communication and relationship-management skills

Please e-mail your application to: first@campbell.de