

CAMPBELL & PARTNERS
EUROPEAN RECRUITMENT CONSULTANTS

Ref: MG/1375

CONTROLLER

Client:

Leading international transport technologist. For German HQ, we are now looking for an astute professional to make a major contribution to the controlling area of one of the business units.

Location: Frankfurt area

Responsibilities:

- drive the target costing activities from development to serial production
- lead the strategic and operative budgeting process in liaison with relevant stakeholders
- support management re strategic and operative decision-making eg make-or-buy, production migrations and feasibility studies
- liaise with R&D and Production re product calculations
- prepare variance analyses re development and production costs and recommend corrective measures
- monitor ratio projects within the business unit

Requirements:

- university graduate in a relevant discipline
- at least 5 years' professional experience in controlling in an industrial environment
- able to interact with both technical and commercial experts
- very good German and English
- very good SAP FI/CO, Excel and PowerPoint skills
- communicative and a team player
- excellent analytical and solution-oriented abilities

Please e-mail your application to: first@campbell.de