

CAMPBELL & PARTNERS
EUROPEAN RECRUITMENT CONSULTANTS

Ref: NS/1241

SENIOR CUSTOMS CONSULTANT

Our client:

International leader in the provision of customs planning and recovery audit services, headquartered in the UK and currently expanding throughout Europe. We are now looking for an astute and entrepreneurial professional to set up operations in Germany.

Responsibilities:

- ° project management of customs compliance services for a broad range of multinational clients across diverse industrial sectors
- ° new business development via the proactive management of existing clients and identification of potential opportunities
- ° develop your team to match the growth of business anticipated mid-term
- ° liaise with your colleagues in other European countries re cross-border projects

Requirements:

- ° a high-achieving graduate and qualified tax or legal specialist
- ° at least 10 years' professional experience in a relevant function
- ° in-depth knowledge of customs and excise taxes, import-export regulations, trade procedures and documentation
- ° excellent communication and relationship-building skills
- ° client-driven and commercially-aware
- ° keen to work without supervision
- ° an entrepreneur with drive and ambition

Please e-mail your application to: first@campbell.de